Summary of CV

This section describes briefly a summary of your career in science, academic and research; the main scientific and technological achievements and goals in your line of research in the medium -and long- term. It also includes other important aspects or peculiarities.

David Rodríguez-Arias, PhD. is a Ramón y Cajal Researcher at the Philosophy I Department of the University of Granada. In December 2008 he simultaneously obtained a PhD in Moral Philosophy at the Philosophy Department of the University of Salamanca, and a PhD in Medical Ethics at the School of Medicine of the Université Paris-Descartes. His PhD dissertation was considered the best dissertation defended in the Philosophy Department in 2009, and a national bioethics prize by the Víctor Grífols i Lucas Foundation. He has been a visiting fellow at the Hastings Center (NY), University of Oxford (UK), Case Western Reserve University (OH), and the University of Toronto Joint Center for Bioethics (ON). His research is mainly devoted to bioethics and global health ethics, with a focus on end-of-life, transplant ethics, and research ethics. He is Executive Director of Academic Stand Against Poverty-Spain. He has published in peer reviewed journals such as Lancet, American Journal of Bioethics, Hastings Center Report, American Journal of Emergency Medicine, Journal of Medical Ethics, and is author or co-editor of 6 books. He has taught Ethics, Applied Ethics and Medical Ethics in different Universities in Spain (Universidad de Salamanca, Universidad de Granada) and France (Université Paris-Descartes). He also collaborates with Case Western Reserve University (Cleveland, OH) in an intensive course on international perspectives in Bioethics.
